Political Conflict and Me

Do you have emotional outbursts while watching or reading the news? Have your friendships or relations with relatives been rocky because of recent political events? Has the level of political conflict affected your work, health, and studies? If so, please join Dr. Fitz for an open discussion entitled “Political Conflict and Me” on Thursday, February 16 at 9 p.m. in Boomer’s. We will eat, talk, share stories, and learn how to navigate through our current political climate.

Pitt Day and Harrisburg

Pitt Day in Harrisburg is on March 21, 2017. This is an annual event where students, faculty, and staff from all the Pitt Campuses spend the day in Harrisburg sharing our stories about Pitt with Pennsylvania State legislators. Over 300 members from the Pitt Community attend this day of advocacy each year. If you are interested in sharing your stories about Pitt-Titusville, please contact Ms. Tammy Carr, Director of Public Relations and Assistant to the President at teknapp@pitt.edu or at 814-827-4429.

On Monday, February 6th, staff from Urban Promise were guest speakers on campus. Urban Promise comes from Wilmington, Delaware to speak to UPT students and invite students to participate in their summer internship opportunities, working with youth in the city and surrounding communities of Wilmington. Urban Promise is a non-profit organization that helps to academically, socially, and emotionally support underserved children and youth by way of Christian schooling, summer & sports camps, and after-school programs.

For more information contact Mr. Ledebur or a member of the Learning Center or Alpha Omega.

Gain valuable leadership skills, build lasting friendships and create priceless memories!

Applications are available in the SU Lobby Feb. 7-10 or the Student Affairs Office (SU 204B)

Still need a textbook? Stop in the Book Center A.S.A.P. and let us know! We are currently returning all of our unsold textbooks to publishers. This includes all of the English Literature books.

If we don’t have a textbook in stock, we can still order it in for you with no extra charge for shipping. We accept credit or debit cards, cash, or checks. Contact the Book Center with any questions!

Jubilee Landing Party

On Monday, February 27th at 7pm, students and the campus community and members of the local Titusville community are encouraged to come hear how college students are engaging their faith and passions. Students who will travel to the Jubilee Conference in Pittsburgh, PA will share about their experiences and talk about how churches and campuses can engage college students. The program will include readings from students, a short presentation, and Q&A. Refreshments will be provided. For more information or questions, please contact Casey Davis, cad145@pitt.edu or Mr. Lede-
