Many Hands Will Make Our Campus Shine!

We need your help for one hour Saturday morning. We’re planting daffodils on campus, Saturday October 24th beginning at 11am. We will provide all the shovels, but we need many hands for planting. The bulbs we plant this fall will bloom next spring.

Meet us under the clock to divide into teams and see who plants the most and who finishes first. Last year, "Team Awesome" led by Mr. Ledebur took top honors.

Daffodil Planting is open to everyone but it’s also a Passport Event for Freshmen.

We also need faculty and staff to lead student teams.

Contact any of the three of us for more information.

A career awareness program open to all students.

Susan Patton
Assistant Professor of Business

Next Wednesday, October 28th is Career Awareness Day.

Sue Patton has developed a great program to help our students in making decisions about careers and preparing for interviews. Sue will have a sign up sheet for students to help facilitate faculty members who will be providing extra credit to students for attending.

This day stems from an idea that resulted from discussions that the Student Persistence Committee had last spring.

See you there!
PITT TITUSVILLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE 2015 WQLN RADIO COLLEGIATE CHALLENGE

If you're new to the game, the Collegiate Challenge is WQLN Radio’s largest fundraiser of the year and unites local colleges and universities in a friendly competition to raise money for WQLN Radio--your local public radio station and NPR affiliate heard on the dial at 91.3 FM (or by translator at 91.5 in Titusville). Pitt-Titusville partners with WQLN Radio during this fundraiser with one commonality in mind: to ignite within our communities the thirst for knowledge, culture, discovery, and well being.

This year WQLN Radio will broadcast from the Pitt-Titusville campus Monday, October 26th as part of the Collegiate Challenge. The campus will have special guests each hour during the 6 a.m. to 1 p.m. broadcast from the campus broadcast location in Boomer’s.

You can help Pitt-Titusville win a Collegiate Challenge trophy by making a donation to WQLN Radio in the name of Pitt-Titusville during the Collegiate Challenge. Donations can be made by calling 814-866-5454 or online under the WQLN Radio Collegiate Challenge link at wqln.org. Your donation helps pay for the programs on WQLN Radio including Morning Edition, Classics with Wally Faas, All Things Considered, Car Talk, Sunday Night Swing with Titusville’s own Dr. Phil Atteberry and other public radio programs on the air. You can get in the game and show your pride in the Pitt Panthers and WQLN Radio by pledging your support to the local public radio station during the Collegiate Challenge.
Learning Center Highlights Event on Advising

On Friday, October 16th at noon, 22 students attended the Learning Center’s Spotlight event on academic advising. Mr. Shoup, Dr. Tress, Ms. Kenyon, and Mr. Ross assisted in helping students understand and learn the usefulness and role of advisors.

Also assisting students at the event was Mrs. Elaine Osborn, Assistant to the Academic Dean and Mrs. Nicole Neely, Registrar, who were on hand to help answer students questions about how advising assists in course selection, impact on financial aid, and processes surrounding transferring & relocation.

Mr. Ledebrur shared his thoughts on the successful event, “I was very pleased by the turnout and the level of commitment of our students to engage in conversations with faculty and staff about advising and take the time to learn the process and how it can be so beneficial to their success in the long run”. The next event upcoming is, the Learning Center Spotlight on “Finals Preparation”, Friday, November 6th at noon in the Learning Center. This is also a Passport Event.

The UPT Guitar Club has met every other week during the Fall Term and currently has 15 members. This year's officers are Monica Makia, Director; Shannon Sanden; Assistant Director; Geneva Bolger, Secretary; and, Corey Payne, Treasurer.

The club business meetings, open to members and guests, are held at 6:00 p.m. in Room 202AB of the Student Union. Members may arrive an hour in advance of the meetings to learn guitar playing techniques or to have jam sessions. Light refreshments are available at each meeting.

On Monday evening, November 9th, the club will host the Bill Huber, Jr. Guitar Trio for a concert to be held in Boomers from 6:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. Members of the trio include Mr. Bill Huber, Mr. Glenn Cochran and Guitar Club Advisor, Mr. Shoup. One of Mr. Huber's sons may join the group to play drums. The musicians will be playing a variety of traditional instrumental jazz, easy listening, soft rock and Beatles songs. There is no admission for the concert. Club members as well as interested students, faculty members and community members are welcome to attend.

The Guitar Club also plans to attend a musical concert at the National Transit Building in Oil City on Friday evening, November 13th after dining at a nearby Hoss's Steak and Sea House. The concert will feature stellar musicians who play guitars, bass guitars and harmonicas to perform rockabilly, blues and other types of music. If fewer than 11 club members elect to attend, UPT students who are not club members may express their interest to attend by e-mailing Monica Makia, Director, at mlm221@pitt.edu.

In addition to these activities, the club is planning a fundraiser, a community service project and possibly a field trip to a Guitar Center prior to the conclusion of the term.

LOCATING FULL TEXT ELECTRONIC JOURNAL ARTICLES via PITT’S DIGITAL LIBRARY

The University Library System’s Digital Library offers numerous databases that can be searched to locate full text electronic journal articles for research assignments. The most commonly searched databases at UPT are Academic Search Premier, ERIC, Health Source, and JSTOR. Come into the library for any help with these databases. We know papers are becoming due, and we’re here to help!

Database Title: Academic OneFile

Description: This is a database for research in all the academic disciplines. It offers balanced coverage of every academic concentration from advertising to microbiology to history and women’s studies. It combines discipline specific titles with area and issue specific journals and publication with cross-disciplinary perspectives with all-inclusive national news magazines and late-breaking news from national newspapers.

Coverage: 1980-Present

Updated: Weekly

Database Title: Academic Search Premier

Description: This scholarly collection provides journal coverage of most academic areas of study, including biological sciences, economics, communication, computer sciences, engineering, language and linguistics, arts and literature, medical sciences, and women’s studies.

Coverage: Full Text – (varies by titles) – 1975-Present

Updated: Daily

Database Title: ERIC (Education Abstracts), then ERIC via EBSCOHost

Description: This database is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education and is the premier national bibliographic database of education literature. It consists of two files. One covers the document literature consisting of research reports, curriculum and teaching guides, conference papers, and books. The second file covers published journal literature from over 775 periodicals. The database also includes the full text of ERIC Digest Records.

Coverage: 1966-Present

Updated: Quarterly

Database Title: Health Source: Nursing/Academic Edition

Description: This resource provides more than 550 scholarly full text journals focusing on many medical disciplines. Its coverage of nursing and allied health is particularly strong.

Coverage: 1990-Present

Updated: Daily

Database Title: JSTOR Archive Collection A-Z Listing

Description: This resource is not a current issues database. Rather, it is a trusted archive of important scholarly journals that span many disciplines. It offers researchers the ability to retrieve high-resolution, scanned images of journal issues and pages as they were originally designed, printed, and illustrated. It holds the complete digitized back runs of core scholarly journals, starting with the very first issues, some dating as far back as the 1600s.

To access any of these databases:

1. Type in the Digital Library’s URL www.library.pitt.edu.
2. Click on the Find Articles tab.
3. In the Other ways to find articles: area of the screen under Databases, click on the By TITLE link.
4. An alphabetical list of all the databases available will appear.
5. Click on the first letter in the alphabet string of the title of the database you want to search.
6. Locate the title of the database you are looking for and click on the link.
